POVERTY TO WEALTH.

Mrs. Northern, a Poor Widow, Claims Two-Thirds of Anneke Jans' Immense Estate.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., March 12.—The accounts of the meeting of the heirs of Anneke Jans, recently published, attracted the attention of Mrs. William Northern, living a few miles north of this city. She thought she had an interest in the Trinity church estate, and employed attorneys to push her claim. They report that her interest in the estate is well founded. She claims that the husband of Anneke Jans sold the property over a century ago to a man named Quackenbush, but that the deed was not signed by the wife. Quackenbush leased the property, in 1790, to Trinity church, for ninety-nine years. Mrs. Northern says she has proof of being a direct decendant of Quackenbush in the fifth generation. Her claim, it seems, is somewhat different from that of the Anneke Jans heirs. By her claim she is entitled to a share of two-thirds of the property, which will leave the Jans heirs only one-third. Mrs. Northern is about fifty years old, and in rather needy circumstances. She has been married, but her husband died four years ago, leaving several children to care for.

TWO OF A KIND.

Gay Cashiers Missing and Their Accounts Short.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 12.—Wm. J. Chambers, cashier of the Barnhardt Mercantile company at 413 North Second street, is missing. His accounts are being investigated. It is alleged that a shortage of over $1,600 has already been discovered. Chambers came to this city about a year ago and has been leading a gay life ever since. A few months ago he married a young woman known as Miss Marie Fovell de Bigras. His wife says she is ignorant of his whereabouts.

BOSTON, March 12.—Benj. Borrows, well known in Medford and North Winchester, left for parts unknown a week ago last Saturday. A daughter of John Maxwell, with whom he had been boarding, also disappeared about the same time, and it is believed that they went together. Barrows had been employed as messenger in the Shoe and Leather bank, of this city, but was discharged for several acts of carelessness. It is now believed by the bank officials that $2,000 or $3,000 of the bank's money had found its way into Barrow's possession before his dismissal from their service.

THE OUTLOOK CLOUDY.

Five Weeks of Rain Have Greatly Flooded Southern States.

WEST POINT, Miss., March 12.—The Tombigee river is out of its banks and has flooded a large area of the country. Many smaller streams in this and adjoining counties have left their beds and flooded many miles of country in all directions. Several miles of track of the Georgia Pacific railroad have been washed away. The Mobile and Ohio and the Illinois Central roads also suffer greatly. It has rained in the eastern part of Mississippi since February 1 and is still at it. The damage already done is over $200,000. The outlook is very gloomy.

A FATAL COLLAPSE.

A Falling Wall Crushes Four Workmen.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., March 12.—The entire front of a hotel here in course of demolition, collapsed yesterday afternoon and four of the workmen were buried beneath the debris. They were shortly rescued, but are badly injured. They are: F. Swartz, injured internally and head cut and will probably die; James Crawford, head cut and side bruised; Edward Bousch, both legs badly cut; Francis Ultner, left leg bruised and bruised about the body. The escape of the men from instant death is considered miraculous.

Called to Bluffton.

BLUFFTON, March 12.—Rev. J. H. Green has been called to the pastorate of the Baptist church of this place. This is one of the best churches of the Baptist denomination in the state. Rev. Mr. Green was recently pastor of the Dillon street Methodist Protestant church of Indianapolis. He is here now engaged in revival services, but will return to Indianapolis to be ordained as a minister of the Baptist church next Sunday afternoon.

Representative Gent Seriously Ill.

COLUMBUS, March 12.—Representative Joseph I. Gent arrived in this city from Indianapolis in a bad condition last evening. He was taken suddenly with erysipelas in the face and head, which is so swollen that his friends can scarcely recognize him. His condition is very critical, and all about him are alarmed. His family, now in Florida, were wired to hasten home.

A Steamer Wrecked.

LONDON, March 12.—An unknown steamer was wrecked near Lland Pont, at Portsmouth, Dunshire, England, last night. All the passengers and crew are believed to have been drowned.

Large Importations of Opium.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Collector of Port Phelps stated to-day that during the past four months 30,000 pounds of prepared opium has been legally imported into this city. The opium is valued at $1,800,000.

Not Up to the Contract Standard.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Information has been received at the navy department that the gunboat Bennington failed to develop the required horse power on her recent trial trip. The report of the trial board is expected daily at the navy department. A private letter received by a naval officer says that the indication card will show a development of 3,313 horse power, while the contract requires 3,400. Mr. Palmer, the builder of the vessel, will ask for a new trial and Secretary Tracey will probably grant the request.

His Case Continued.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 12.—Owing to the absense from the city of President Von der Abe and Secretary Munson, of the St. Louis base ball club, the case of Pitcher Mark Baldwin, charged with conspiracy, was continued until Wednesday, March 18. Baldwin says he is positive he will be discharged at the preliminary hearing.

Declared Unconstitutional.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 12.—The supreme court of Ohio this morning rendered a decision in the case of the board of city affairs of Cincinnati, declaring that the law under which that body was brought into existence to be unconstitutional.

The ludicrous farce comedy, "My Aunt Bridget," comes to the Masonic Temple next Saturday evening. The play is quite a favorite here and will be greeted by a packed house.

Postmaster Higgins is at Chicago. The colonel and General Palmer not having fought in the same regiment 'tis not likely that he will go over to Springfield to congratulate the general over his democratic victory.

O. N. Lumbert, secretary of the People's Mutual Benefit society of Elkhart, was in the city to-day on business pertaining to the interest of the local society. O. Donshaw, the special agent located here, assisted him in his business.

Abe Gump, the faster, has turned author, and is now getting out a 40-page book of his experience while fasting. A volume of this work he will give to all those buying tickets for his benefit, which will be given at the World's Museum on the 27th inst.

Dr. H. W. Todd, who has just graduated from the Taylor university, has been one of the most active members of the First Regiment band for some time. Last night, at rehearsal, the members of the band presented him with a handsome gold headed cane. He leaves in a few days for his home at Crestline.

The following officers were then elected for four years: Warden, James French; deputy warden, Thomas Donnelly; physician, Dr. R. H. Calvert; chaplain, Rev. D. P. Breed, who succeed themselves with the exception of the warden. Ex-Warden Murdock will return to Lafayette, where he has large business interests.

A GREAT DISCOVERY.

An Invention That Will Revolutionize the Street Car System—Horses Must Go.

TACOMA, Wash., March 12.—A corporation which gives promise of becoming one of the most important electric railway construction companies of the age, has just been organized here with a capital of $700,000. The company owns the exclusive patents to which it is claimed to be the only successful method of applying an electric current to an underground wire ever invented. Contracts have already been made for the construction of railways in Washington D. C., Kansas City, Omaha, Providence, R. I., and several other cities. The company has incorporated as the Wheeless Underground Electric company. The principal point in the wheeless system consists of a different application of the electric current to the wire. Instead of charging a continuous trolley wire it is divided into sections of three hundred feet each, and charged automatically as the car passes from one section to another.

ANOTHER GREAT STORM.

Travel on Pacific Coast Roads Again Interrupted.

SANTA FE, N. M., March 12.—All Denver mail due from Denver since Monday is again tied up in a snow blockade on the Denver and Rio Grande road between Antito and Trapidras. For the past three days, another snow storm, accompanied by heavy winds, has prevailed throughout San Juan county. From Chama word comes that eighteen miles of the track west of there is under snow from a depth of five to forty feet. This is being cleared off at the rate of about a mile per day, so that no trains can hope to go west of Chama short of April the 1st. In the meantime it is feared there will be great suffering among the people of Monroe, Amargo and other stations as far west as Durango and Silverton.

BELLEFONTAINE DISGRACED.

The Mayor Getson a Howling Drunk and Will be Removed.

BELLEFONTAINE, Ohio, March 12.—The temperance people here are greatly shocked over the escapade of Mayor A. L. Wright, who forgot his solemn promise to them to not get drunk while in office, made a year ago, if they would elect him mayor. Last Monday he filled himself with bad whisky, becoming so helplessly drunk that he had to be carried from the street up his office. Wright had agreed to resign if he got drunk while he was mayor, but now he refuses to do so, and there is consequently considerable talk of taking measures to have him removed from the office.

Knocks Out the Statute.

BOWLING GREEN, Mo., March 13.—In the case of Luke M. Emerson, against the Western Union Telegraph company, for damages under section 2726, revised statutes of 1889, Judge Hughes, of the Pike county circuit court, rendered a decision which, if sustained by the higher court, knocks out the statute. Emerson sued for the penalty of $200, for the failure of the company to deliver a telegram sent from this city to Nashville, Ill. The defendant demurred on the ground that said section, in so far as it applies to the telegraphic business beyond the borders of Missouri, is unconstitutional, in that it undertakes to regulate Inter-State commerce and is, therefore, in violation of the constitutional states, conferring on congress the regulation of Inter-State commerce. Judge Hughes sustained the demurrer. The case will be taken to the higher courts.

A Railroad Election.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The directors elected at yesterday's meeting of the stockholders of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroad company met later and re-elected Wm. L. Breyfogle president; Geo. F. Postlethwaite and Hiram Hunt, vice-presidents; Wm. H. Lewis, secretary and treasurer; and John A. Hilton, assistant secretary and treasurer. The following executive committee was chosen: H. H. Campbell, N. W. Busteed, Gilbert B. Shaw, John B. Hughes and G. F. Postlethwaite.

Hang the Brute.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 12.—Barney Oswald, aged fifty years, was arraigned yesterday in the court of criminal correction on a charge of having criminally assaulted his grand-daughter, Tetta Kuhner. It was alleged that the assault was committed last May, and that two weeks ago the girl, who is only fourteen years old, gave birth to a child. Oswald was held to answer to the grand jury.

The Mint Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—The attorney-general will probably not render an opinion on the Philadelphia mint matter for two weeks. The opinion is freely expressed by the law officers and accounting officers of the treasury department, however, that the mint bill does not carry with it an appropriation.

The Levee Breaks.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 12.—The levee at Conley's Lake, about ten miles south of this city, gave way early this morning and the water is pouring through the crevice at a rapid rate. The country for miles around is being inundated, and the Louisville, New Orleans and Texas railroad tracks are two feet under water. Workmen have gone to the scene and will at once begin patching the break.

RATHER SENSATIONAL.

Two Italians Engage in a Dispute to the Deputies' Chamber.

ROME, March 12.—A sensational scene was enacted in the chamber of deputies yesterday evening. Signor Imbiani cried out to the Crispi group: "You are the servants of Austria." To which Signor Crispi responded by saying: "Servants, no; good friends, yes." Signor Imbiani repeated his taunt with emphasis, whereupon Signor Crispi directed a gross insult to that gentleman. To a demand from Signor Imbiani that he withdraw the insult Signor Crispi refused, saying that while he held the position of a minister of the state he had been compelled to endure the annoyance of Signor Imbiani. "But now," furiously exclaimed the ex-premier, "I am no longer bound to do so, as I am only a deputy. In my pocket I have a revolver; if Imbiani annoys, let him beware." This outburst was followed by a scene of extraordinary excitement and confusion.

CAPTAIN HETTLER.

The Ex-Councilman Being Talked of for Mayor.

Capt. Robert Harrison, the foreman in the machine department of the Pittsburg car shops, was met by a SENTINEL reporter last evening. "Anything new?" asked THE SENTINEL reporter, following a habit he indulged when a year or two ago he made the rounds of the busy centers and met Captain Harrison every morning.

"Well, yes," replied the captain, with the pleasant look and genial manner that has made him one of the most popular foremen in the employ of the Pennsylvania company. "I have got a new candidate for mayor."

"Who?" queried the reporter.

"Capt. Christ Hettler. You know him well. He is the purchasing agent of the Pennsylvania company. When he was in the city council he was regarded as one of the best financiers in that body. Many of the men in the shops are for him, and we are going to boom him for the democratic nomination."

TO TEACH BUSINESS.

A New Business College Contemplated for This City.

For several days past a visitor in the city has been F. H. Bliss, president of the International Business colleges of Saginaw and Bay City, Mich. The object of his coming here was to procure a location to establish in this city a third school and he has entered into negotiations for a lease. The school at Saginaw was founded five years ago. It is proposed to teach business methods, stenography, book keeping, actual business practice, commercial law, etc. Mr. Bliss says that it was the intention to open a school either in Fort Wayne or at Indianapolis; that this city is the choice and the school will be started here when quarters extensive enough can be secured.

FROM BIER TO GRAVE.

The Remains of John Cochrane Laid Away—The Schools Closed.

The remains of John Cochrane were to-day placed beneath the sod in the beautiful Lindenwood and the form of another of Fort Wayne's pioneer figures now rests in the silent city of the dead. When the funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Moffat in the First Presbyterian church, of which the deceased was a devout member, many in the audience wept at the words of eulogy. The funeral was largely attended. The pallbearers have been published. The master builders and Caledonian club attended in a body. The public schools closed in honor to the memory of the deceased.

A CROWD OF DRUNKS!

Gathered in by the Police Last Night —Officer Lee's Tussle With Two of Them.

The flowing bowl must have flowed pretty freely last night, for in police court this morning six miserable, besotted individuals faced his honor, Mayor Harding, and received jail sentences at his hands. The names of the gang, as they were spread out upon Marshal Franke's register, were as follows: Jennie Huber and Robert Tillbury, arrested by Officer Lee; Silas Corson and Eduard Smith, arrested by Officer Quinn; Charles Stacy and John Waters, arrested by Officer Stoll. The mayor listened to the tale of woe as told by each one of the imbibers and assessed a fine of $10 50 against each of them. Every member of the drunken crowd had spent their last cent, and, being unable to pay their fines, were sent to jail for eleven days. The two first named, Jennie Huber and Robert Tillbury, were out for a good time last night. The woman had come from Penn and with the man had started out early in the evening for a round of beer drinking. They both seemed to have overestimated their capacity, or else they may have desired to get drunk, for by ten o'clock they were gloriously full in the vicinity of the Rich hotel. Here Officer Lee ran across them, and, single handed and alone, took them in tow. The job was a bigger one than he had calculated on. It is no easy matter to handle two drunken individuals and Officer Lee soon found that he had all he could do. The woman was hilarious and the man was inclined to be ugly and resisted arrest, and before the officer got them to the patrol box, the three had taken a tumble and had a roll or two around on the muddy streets and sidewalks. Officer Lee, however, was able to handle his prisoners, and when the patrol wagon appeared they were dumped into it and taken to the police station, where the hilarious pair spent the night. They were both covered with mud from head to foot, and presented a sorry looking spectacle. The woman, after being placed in the cell, made night hideous with her yells, but tired nature soon asserted itself and she slept the sleep of the drunken debauch.

COURT SITTINGS.

The superior court is in session. The circuit court has adjourned until to-morrow morning.

The case of Catherine Hart against John and Martha Hussenfuss has been appealed from Justice Wilkinson to the superior court.

The matter of the opening of Burgess street has been appealed to the circuit court.

In Justice Wilkinson's court the great calf case of Anthony Denz against Jedidiah Kendall, was on trial. The calf had been replevined from the defendant by virtue of a writ issued at the instance of the plaintiff. The calf and the defendant both lived in Adams township, and Justice Wilkinson dismissed the case because he had no jurisdiction. J. H. Harper appeared for the plaintiff, and A. H. Bittenger for the defendant. The case will be taken before Justice Linker, in Adams township.

Justice Ryan has a sort of funny case before him this afternoon, which the attorneys, A. H. Bittenger for the plaintiff and Geo. W. Lonttit for the defendant, are fighting vigorously. It is the case of Mrs. Mary Lewis against John Lucas. Some weeks ago the defendant butchered his hogs and on butchering day borrowed and used two barrels belonging to the plaintiff. In some way these barrels were damaged by fire and now Mrs. Lewis sues for their value. The amount involved in the suit is $3.

The suit lavits filed some time ago in Justice Ryan's court by Constable Skelly against Mary Lewis for assault and battery have been revived and warrants issued on them. The issue of the warrants had been delayed on account of the illness of Mrs. Lewis. A suit was commenced a few days ago to oust Mrs Lewis from the house in which she lived on account of the non-payment of rent. When the constable, with the landlord, Charles Langhlin, went to serve the papers the lady got after them with a potato masher and a pot hook and drove them out of the yard. Woman like, she held the fort against all invaders, and for the time being victory perched upon her banner. After this she was taken ill and the suits against her were not pushed to prosecution.

AN ENERGY O PLAN.

R. T. McDonald May Put Up Quarters for the Electric Club.

Manager R. T. McDonald is trying to acquire the title to a piece of Calhoun street property not far from Jefferson street, it is said, for the purpose of erecting thereon a strictly first class office building with a hall on the top floor for the Electric club, which now occupies the fourth floor of the Schmitz block. That the plan will mature is by no means assured.

Mrs. Threadgoll Surprised.

The friends of Mrs. John Threadgall, of Nelson street, gave her a surprise yesterday afternoon. The party consisted of the following ladies: Mesdames John Baker, Buschie, Thompson, R. Show, Hoppingardner, W. Hamilton, N. D. Pierson, Ruppert, J. Meisner, J. W. Frederick, C. Frederick, Iba, H. Dierstine and H. Threadgall, and Miss Iba. The afternoon was pleasantly passed in games and conversation and at 5 o'clock a splendid supper was served. Mrs. Threadgall has entirely recovered from the effects of a fall received a few weeks ago and was able to take an active part in the pleasures of the day.

He was a member of the benevolent society of St. Mary's Catholic church. The funeral will occur Sunday at 1:30 p. m., from the St. Mary's Catholic church.

John H. Ormsby, of Bluffton, made THE SENTINEL a pleasant call to-day. Mr. Ormsby and Prof. Allen have purchased the Bluffton Banner of Capt. E. Y. Sturgis, taking possession May 1. Both are men of ability and will make their newspaper venture a success. Mr. Ormsby is on his way to Argos, where his family had preceded him.

Payne, Ohio, a small but prosperous village a few miles east of here on the Nickel Plate road, was again visited by a destructive fire. The fire confined itself to the six following business rooms: T. Lamb's general store, A. Gist's saloon, D. Bower's barber shop, Stellinger's grocery, together with a restaurant and a shoestore. The loss, as estimated as near as possible, is $20,000. Only partly covered by insurance.

GETTING IN LINE.

The City Democratic Central Committee Held a Meeting to Prepare for the City Election.

The democratic city central committee held an interesting and enthusiastic meeting at the council chamber last evening to talk over matters relative to the coming city election. The attendance was quite large, most of the members of the committee being present, besides a number of other democrats. Phil Lindley, the chairman of the committee, presided, and Capt. E. B. Smith, the committee secretary, served in that capacity at the desk. Mr. Lindley, in calling the meeting to order, made a neat speech, in which he alluded to the importance of being united and active in preparing for the city election. A good ticket should be nominated, and then all should work together for its success.

Secretary Smith, alluding to the great victory accomplished by the democrats of Illinois in the election of John M. Palmer by the legislature of that state as United States senator, reported having sent the following telegram:

Speaker Gulf, Illinois legislature:

The democracy of the banner democratic city of Indiana, through its central committee, congratulates the gallant 101 members of the Illinois legislature whose fidelity to principles secure the election of that noble old hero, John M. Palmer, to the United States senate.

PHIL LINDLEY, Chairman,
E. B. SMITH, Secretary.

The first business before the committee was the selection of persons to fill the vacancies on the committee and the following were chosen: C. L. Dussler in the First ward and Wm. Gordon in the Seventh ward.

The manner of making the nominations for city officers was next discussed and speeches were made by Messrs. Phil Colerick, Wm. Daly, Councilman Michaels, Louis Fox, Mr. Royans, Isaac Hazzard and others. Mr. Colerick explained the Australian law and said there was nothing in it which prevented the holding of the usual democratic primary elections for the purpose of making the nominations. I think, he said, we have a right to carry on the primaries just as we have conducted them before. This view was co-incided in by others, and finally, on motion of Captain Smith, Saturday, April 11, between the hours of 4 and 7 o'clock in the afternoon, was selected as the time for holding the democratic primaries, it being decided that voting need not be carried on according to the Australian method, but just as it has been done for years by the democrats of this city.

W. P. Bacon was chosen election commissioner, and he, with Will Wilson and City Clerk Rudy Reinewald, will constitute the board of election commissioners.

Considerable discussion was precipitated by the motion of Mr. Royans to increase the membership of the city committee by choosing one from each voting precinct, instead of two from each ward, as at present. Finally this was adopted, and the vacancies will be filled at the next primary election. After the transaction of some other business, the committee adjourned until March 18th.

The meeting was one that augurs well for harmony and united action within the democratic ranks this spring. All present believed that the party should put forward its very best efforts and elect a democratic mayor and other democratic city officers and place the party in Fort Wayne in good fighting trim for 1892. The ticket nominated on April 11th will be the winning ticket and from the candidates already in the field, those present at the meeting last night thought it could not be other than a most excellent one.

The Senior Class to Give an Entertainment at the Temple.

The fair young lady pupils of Westminster seminary are in course of training for an entertainment to be given in the near future, at the Masonic Temple. Miss Philley, the elocutionist, directs the rehearsals personally, insuring a good program. There will be literature and song, and will include physical exercises and drills. An entertainment that will be a novelty such, as a refined audience can appreciate, is assured. Among the participants will be the class of graduates, as follows: Misses Grace Base, Clara Zollars, Tracy Guild, Matilda Theime, Charlotte Lowry and Nellie Freeman. The date set for the entertainment is April 15, and, although the affair is under the auspices of the senior class, perhaps other pupils will assist.

THE democracy have reason to feel proud of their victory in Illinois by reason of the election of John M. Palmer to the United States senate. The people of that state elected 101 democrats, 100 republicans, and three alliance men to the legislature. The popular majority for General Palmer was nearly 30,000. For two months, and for 154 consecutive ballots in the legislature, every democratic vote in the general assembly was cast for Palmer. The democrats stood like a stone wall and never wavered a moment. They won, and General Palmer is elected. The congratulation sent by the democratic city central committee of this city last night, was proper and timely.

NO WOMEN NEED APPLY.

Within a day or two Governor Hovey will appoint the twenty-six commissioners to arrange for Indiana's exhibit at the World's Fair. The bill of Senator Ewing, which is now the law, regulating the appointments, was so amended in the house as to provide that thirteen of the commissioners should be women. When the conference committee came to report, however, it knocked out the amendment and the bill was passed without. There is a prevalent impression that this is not the case, and applications have already been made for the appointment of various ladies. The governor has intimated that he will appoint no ladies, as a vast amount of work had to be done by these commissioners and he thought it should be entrusted to well qualified men only.

THE APPELLATE JUDGES.

Governor Hovey yesterday appointed the following gentlemen judges of the new appellate court, provided for by the law recent y enacted:

First District—Judge George G. Reinhard, democrat, Rockport, Spencer county.

Second District—Judge Jeptha D. New, democrat, North Vernon, Jennings county.

Third District—James B. Black, republican, Indianapolis.

Fourth District—Milton S. Robinson, republican, Anderson, Madison county.

Fifth District—Edgar D. Crumpacker, republican, Valparaiso, Porter county.

These gentlemen are to serve from the date of their appointment until January 1, 1891, when their successors will have been elected and qualified. Under the provisions of the law authorizing their appointment, they are to constitute the appellate court, which is to meet in Indianapolis, its operations being on the same general plan as that of the supreme court, with the exception that their powers and jurisdiction are specifically limited.

COMPLIMENTARY WORDS

Bestowed Upon Superintendent Blake by an Indianapolis Democrat.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., March 9, 1889.

EDITOR DAILY SENTINEL:

Two friends of the school for feeble minded are rejoicing over the success which crowned Supt. J. G. Blake's efforts to secure the much needed appropriation of $61,000 for the proposed new "Orchestra building," and the new "school building." Everyone is glad that those words of the state will not recede, rivet of the conveniences due them. Fort Wayne owes much to Superintendent Blake. On the very day he was elected he said to me that he would ask the legislature for $200,000 to put the school upon a proper footing. He secured $187,000 two years ago, and this year he has secured $61,000 more, and all by his own efforts, ably seconded, it is true, by a few such friends as ex-Senator Barrett, Hon. Robert Bell, Representative Oppenheim, Judge Heath, and others. True, by his untiring efforts, Fort Wayne has secured one of the great institutions of the state. I know whereof I speak when I say that the Indiana school for feeble minded is already in the foremost rank. I have visited it oftener than, perhaps, any other citizen, not a trustee, and I know it to be doing its work ably and well. It is to be hoped that the people of Fort Wayne and vicinity will become well acquainted with this school. It is worthy the warm support which Superintendent Blake has brought to it. Viewed from this standpoint Mr. Blake has been instrumental in giving to Fort Wayne more than perhaps any other citizen of that city. Yet he has but just begun. With his distinguished ability, his zeal in his chosen work, his love for children, and especially the unfortunate, he will, in the years to come, make his school the pride of the land. He is a fit head to a great state charge. Let no partisan manipots detract from this just fame. A DEMOCRAT

The impecunious sum of 15cm has disappeared, not leaving so much as a card of regrets to denote whether he left town by a limited express or via the heel and toe air line. Anyhow the youth is missing and so is an elegant pin belonging to Mr. Oppelt and a pin belonging to Mr. Futter, some soap, and last but not least, some cash from the money drawer. The officers were notified, but the matter will probably be dropped.

Resolutions of Respect.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Divine Providence to take from our midst an honored citizen and fellow craftsman, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Cochrane being one of the oldest members of the building profession of the city, having for over fifty years been engaged in active business as a builder, and having by his honorable life and upright dealing endeared himself to the whole community, we, the Master Builders' association, beg to tender our sympathy to his family in this their hour of affliction,

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the city papers and a copy be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

INTERVIEW WITH PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

HAV no politics. Nary a one. I'm not in the business. If I was, I spose I should holler versifferis in the streets at nite and go round to Berry Jane smollin'ot and tie and give in the morning. I should go to the Poles arly. I should stay there all day. I should go on that my name was Bar. I should git varis sums to take the kripples to the asylum and the indicrunt thar. I should be grand agin temprit and slich. I should be on the look out for the infunnts bro of the enemy—a up just bel ole skin for premiums.

When the war was over and my candydate was elected, I should move to Washington—until I got office, which of I didn't git I either I should turn round and abuse the Administration with all my mite and mane. But I'm not in the business. I'm in a far more respectful business nor what pollertics is. I wouldn't go two cents to be a Congressor. The wuss insult I ever received was when certin citizens of Baldinsville axed me to run for the Legislatur. Says I, "My friends, do you think I'll stoop to that there?" The crowd in whitin a wheel. I spoke in my most sarkastic tones, & they knowed I wasn't to be trifled with. They skulked out of site to onct.

Then I, having got rid of them, made hold to Gin'ral Abe Alexander's shooting field. I found the old boy in his parlor, surrounded by a large assortment of office seekers. Knowin he had been capting for the Presidency, I thought I'd go in and see him in rather limber-ass and I. Old Abe says: "Let me p'romounce, to all hands & creashun of office seekers, you're a gang of cussid sharp-sighted fellers." N. B. This is common rumor I understand, now, because I've actually got a office and can be trusted. New York theater fellers. Old Abe broke up quite sudden & says, "Send in yer petition by & by. I can't possibly look at it now. Indeed, I can't. It's impossible, sir!"

"Mr. Linkin, who do you spect I am?" said I.

"A office-seeker, to be sure," said he.

"Wall, sir," said I, "you's never more mistaken in your life. You hain't got a office I'd take under no circumstances. I'm A. Ward. Wax figgers is my perfeshun. I'm the father of Twins, and they look like me—both of them. I come to pay a friendly visit to the President elect of the United States. If so be you wants to see me, say so—if not, say so, & I'm off like a jay bandle."

"Mr. Ward, sit down. I am glad to see you, Sir."

"Repose in Abraham's Bazzum!" said one of the office seekers, his idee bein to git off a mask at my expense.

"Wall," sez I, "of you fellers repose in that there Bazzum there'll be mity poor nussin for sum of you!" whereupon Old Abe buttoned his weskit clear up and blushi like a maidin of sweet 16. Jest at this pint of the conversation another swarm of office seekers arrove & cum pilin into the parlor. Sum wanted post offices, sum wanted collectorships, sum wantid furrin missions, and all wanted sumthin. I thought Old Abe would go crazy. He hadn't more than had time to shake hands with 'em, before another tremendis crowd cum pourin onto his premises. His house and dooryard was now perfeckly overflowed with office seekers, all clamorous for a immejit interview with Old Abe. One man from Ohio, who had about seven inches of corn whisky into him, mistook me for Old Abe and addrest me as "The Prairie Flower of the West!" Thinks I you want a office pretty bad. Another man with a gold headed cane and a red nose told Old Abe he was a sechind Washington & the Pride of the Boundless West.

Sez I, "Square, you wouldn't take a small post-office if you could git it, would you?"

Sez he, "a patrit is above them things, sir!"

"There's a putty big crop of patrits this season, aint there, Squire?" sez I, when another crowd of office seekers pored in. The house, door yard, barn & woodshed was now all full, and when another crowd cum I told 'em not to go away for want of room as the hog pen was still empty. One patrit from a small town in Michigan went up on top the house, got into the chimney and slid down into the parlor where Old Abe was endeavoring to keep the longer pack of office seekers from chawin him up alive with an excess of clergy. The patrit seemed to like the place & he jumpt up, took to the wood out of his eyes, and yelled: "Don't make any payment at the post-office postoffice till you've read my papers. All the respectful men in small towns is agreed to that there dockyment!"

"Good God!" cried Old Abe, "they are comin one from the skies down the chimbly and from the bowels of the earth! He hadn't more'n got them words out of his deblait mouth before another 1/2 cookers from Wisconsin, in order to crawl across his legs for the purpus of applyin for the collogate-ship at Milwaukey, upset the President elect, and he would have gone sprawlin into the fire place if I hadn't caught him in these arms. But I hadn't more'n got him up straite before another man come tumblin down the chimney, his head striking me violently agin the mantle and penetrating my solipsism form onto the floor. "Mr. Linkin," shouted the infatuated man, "my papers is signed by every politician in our town, and likewise by the clergy!"

"You 1,000 egregis ass," gittin up & rubbin the dust from my eyes, "I'll scrape your papers with this bunch of hares, if you don't be a little more keerful how you make my head basket a depot in the futer. How do you like that air pecooliary?" sez I, shuving my fist under his nose. "There's the kind of papers I'll give you! There's the papers you want!"

"After I workt hard for the ticket; I toiled night and day! The patrit should be rewarded!"

"Virtue," sez I, holdin' the infatuated man by the coat collar, "virtue, sir, is its own reward. Look at me!" He did look at me, and quaked like a gase. "The fact is," I continued, lookin' round on the lunacy crowd, "there is scarcely a office for every 10 lamp carrid round durin' this campaine. I wish there was. I wish there was furrin missions to be filled on varis lonely Islands who no appintmines rage incessantly, and if I was in Old Abe's place I'd send every mother's son of you to them. What are you here for?" I continued, warmin up considerable, "can't you giv Abe a minit's peace! Don't you see he's worn most to death! Go home, you miserable men, go home & till the soil. Go to pollitin unaware—go to lobpin shel out to fillin supes—stuff canvasses—black boots—git a clerkship on sum respectable manure cart—go round as original Swiss Bell Ringers—become 'eloquent and only' Campbell Manstealers to lecturin at 50 dollars a nite imbark in the peanut business—work for the Lodges—saw off your legs and go round givin concerts, work in appeals to a charitable public, print on your handbills—anything for an honest living, but don't come round here round Old Abe crazy by your outside cuttings up! Go home. Submit not upon the order of your goin', but go to once! If in five minits from this time, sez I, pullin' out my new sixteen shar bowie knife and brandishin it before their eyes, "If in five minits from this time a single sole of your numerous on these here premises, I'll go at to my cage near by, and let my Pet Catamount loose! & if he gits around you, you'll think old Saffering has been sent to see you!"

Yes ought to her seen them scamper, Mr. Fair. They run off as the Satan Blue if was after them with a red hot ten pronged pitchfork. In five minits the premises was clear.

"How kin I ever repay you, Mr. Ward, for your kindness?" sed Old Abe, a hankin and shakin me warmly by the hand. "How kin I ever repay you, sir!"

"By givin the whole country a good, sound administration. By pourin' oil upon the troubled waters, North and South. By pursooin' a patriotic, firm, and just course, and then if any State wants to secede, let 'em Sesesh!"

"How 'bout my Cabinit, Mister Ward?" said Abe.

"Fill it up with Showmen, sir! Showmen is devoid of politics. They hain't got any principles. They know how to cater for the public. They know what the public wants, North & South. Showmen, sir, is honest men. If you doubt their literary ability look at their posters, and see small bills! If you want a Cabinit as is a Cabinit fill it up with showmen, but don't call on me. The moral wax figger perfeshun mustn't be permitted to go down while there's a drop of blood in these vains! A. Linkin, I wish you well! If Powers or Walcutt was to pick out a model for a beautiful man, I scarcely think they'd sculp you; but of you do the fair thing by your country you'll make as putty a angel as any of us! A. Linkin, use the talent which Nature has put into you judiciously and firmly, and all will be well! A. Linkin, adoo!"

He shook me cordyally by the hand—we exchanged picters, so we could gaze upon each other's linements when far away from one another—heat the bellum of the ship of State, and I at the bellum of the show bizness—admittance only 15 cents.

THE SHOW BUSINESS AND LECTURES.

I feel that the Show Bizness, which I've strove to ornament, is been usurpt by Poplar Lectures, as they air called, tho in my opinion they air poplar humbugs. Individdoods, who git hard up, embark in the lecturin bizuss. They cram their selves with hi-soundin frazis, frizzle up their hare, git trust-id for a soot of black close and cum out to lectur at 50 dollers a pop. They aint ever stock with braines, but they hav brass enuff to make sufficshunt kittles to bile all the sope that will be required by the ensoolin sixteen generashuns. Peple flock to hear um in knowds. The man go home, & the wimin folks go to see what other wimin folks have on.

When its over the lecturer goes & regales hiss if with oysters and rich, while the people say "What a charmin lecter that air was." shettery shettery, when 9 out of 10 of um don't have no more idee of what the lecturer sed than my kanceroo has of the seventh speer of heevin. There's meone infurmashun to be got out of a well conducted newspaper—price 3 cents—than there is out of ten poplar Lectures at 25 or 50 dollars a pop, as the case may be. These same people, bare in mind, stick up their noses at moral wax figgers & sqeashus bowels. They say these thing is low. Gents, it grieves my hart in my old age, when I'm in the "Silver & golden leaf" do cote from my fresh friend Mister McHabit to see that the show bizness is pretty much plaid out! Sumthing I shall chaine it soon to the sperrit.

If you decide, from what you have heard or read, that you will take Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy any substitute instead.

The Portrait of a Lady

Painted on paper by the pen of such a novelist as Henry James will do very well, but the real portrait of a real lady is a very different affair. Has she pimples on her face, or blotches? Is her complexion sallow? If so, the conscientious artist in this realistic age will have to put them all down. The lady's remedy for her pimples, blotches and sallowness is S.S.S. the great vegetable remedy for the blood. There can be no beauty where there is no health, whereas S.S.S. the most common face features are rendered piquant and interesting by a beautiful complexion S.S.S. gives strength and vigor to the whole system, tone to the digestive organs, and our best physicians prescribe it. The potency of this wonderful blood purifier is unparalleled, and yet, powerful as it is, it may be taken by the most delicate infant with perfect safety. It is guaranteed by the manufacturers to be entirely free from Mercury, or any other mineral, and no matter what the disease or impurity of the blood may be, S.S.S. will cure it. Two Bottles Cured Her.

CARROLL, Ia., July, 1888.

I was suffering 10 years from Headache by my head, so much so, that at times I could expect to recover. I took medicines from many doctors, but didn't get any relief until I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, the second dose relieved me, and two bottles cured me entirely.

Best Brain and Nerve Tonic.

MacConnelsville Hygienic Co., O., May 1888.

Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic has a wonderful effect on me. I suffered for many years from nervousness, and had a lost of pain in the back of my head, and I lost my appetite, so that I could not eat. I tried different remedies, and at last I got to the point, that I was unable to walk. Then I took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and I can truly say that it has done me more good than all the medicines I ever took before. To get rid of pain in the back of the head I took a few bottles, and I cannot be thankful enough for the good it has done me. I feel like a new man, and cannot be thankful enough for the good it has done me. I feel like a new man, and cannot say too much in favor of this Nerve Tonic. I believe it is the best Brain and Nerve Tonic in the world.

SPRING SUGGESTIONS.

Avoid draughts and sudden changes of temperature.

Do not discard your warm winter clothing too soon. It is better to suffer a little inconvenience than to take cold

Remember that one is especially liable to contract a bad cold or chill at this season of the year.

A cough or cold contracted between the seasons is the most annoying kind, and may last through the summer.

If you feel a cough or cold coming on, take a drink of pure whiskey at once. It will keep the blood in circulation and is the best preventive against ill-effects of the season.

Remember that only pure whiskey should be taken. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has the strength of 4 ordinary ones from the sprouting barley and medical worth. It is the only standard medical whiskey. Take no other from your druggist or grocer.

ANNUAL MEETING.

Report of Trustees of the Presbyterian Church—Election of Officers.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church held its annual meeting last evening in the parlors of the church. Hon. O. P. Morgan was called to the chair and H. C. Moderwell was chosen secretary. The outgoing board of trustees made a brief report in which they spoke of the increased prosperity of the church and the betterment of its financial condition. The payment of the $5,000 of bonds that matured the past year, had been effected by the very generous subscriptions of individuals, and especial mention was made of the large contribution of the ladies' Aid society of the church, whose donation for the purpose was $1,010.

The indebtedness outstanding consists of two sets of bonds, each set amounting to $5,000 and maturing in 1893 and 1896 respectively, also a note of $550, and a balance of $160 due the organist. They also called attention to the fact that in consequence of the series of revival meetings held in the church, the annual meeting had been delayed so that the treasurer's and other reports covered a period of thirteen months, or to March 13, instead of till February 12.

The treasurer's report showed:

Balance from last year	$ 74 01
Pew rents	6 946 16
Collections	1 880 00
	$8,900 17
Total	$8,900 17

The expenditures were:

For pastor's salary, on hand year	$ 2,400 00
For pastor's salary, current year	2,500 00
Clerk and organist	1,245 75
Interest	970 00
Note	500 00
Various repairs and expenses	1,277 11
Balance	225 31
	$8,900 17

The deacons reported that by resolution of the congregation they were required to take charge of all monies contributed for the various boards of the church for the support of the Sabbath school and for general benevolence.

Their report dated from May 1, 1890. The total amount contributed for these purposes after that date was $680 68. Amount contributed before May 1, 1890, $180.89; making a grand total of $861 57.

The amounts contributed had been forwarded to the boards of moneys of the cause for which the services had been given.

On motion of D. N. Foster the outgoing board was instructed to publish the reports in suitable form, and that a copy be placed in each pew in the auditorium room, for the information of all concerned.

The congregation then proceeded to the election of a board of trustees for the ensuing year. On motion the old board was unanimously selected. It consists of Messrs. J. M. Moritz, E H McDonald, S. M. Foster, A. E. Huffman, John H. Jacobs.

Hon. Montgomery Hamilton then introduced a resolution instructing the trustees to request the session to take such measures as may be necessary to assume regularity in the time for the commencement of the public services of the church. Quite an animated discussion took place over this resolution, which probably accomplished the end intended by the mover, and it was finally laid on the table. It was agreed that a reform in this respect was desirable, but exactly how is it going to be inaugurated when the city has no real standard of time? This closed the deliberations and the meeting adjourned.

CALIFORNIA EXCURSIONS.

Combining Comfort, Economy and Respectability.

The Santa Fe route, realizing the fact that there is a demand for a service to California and the Pacific Coast which will secure to the traveler even a greater degree of comfort than is given on the regular trains, has organized a series of special Santa Fe route excursions on regular dates between Chicago, Kansas City and all California points.

The most successful and satisfactory low rate excursions ever run to California have been over the Santa Fe route, and this company, with its own line from Chicago to California, smooth track and fine equipment will make these excursions more popular and successful than ever.

The excursions leave Chicago every Thursday at 7:50 p. m. from the Dearborn station of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, and leave Kansas City every Friday at 10:15 a. m. and 11 p. m. They are personally conducted by salaried excursion agents of the Santa Fe route, who accompany the parties to destination, and give personal attention to the comfort of passengers, especially aged persons, ladies and children without escort.

Pullman Tourist Sleeping Cars are used in these excursions, and run through from Chicago and Kansas City without change to California. These cars are furnished with all necessary articles of comfort and convenience, as described elsewhere herein. A colored porter is assigned to each car, under the direction of the regular Pullman conductor. These arrangements give to the passenger every attention obtainable on first class transportation.

Parties joining the excursions should write to D. A. Bunn, passenger agent, Rialto building, Chicago, who will give necessary information and assistance to passengers regarding tickets, baggage, location in sleeper, etc. Ticket office 213 Clark street, Chicago, corner of Adams street.

WHAT IS SAPOLIO?

It is a solid handsome cake of scouring soap which has no equal for all cleaning purposes except in the laundry. To use it is to value it.

What will SAPOLIO do? Why it will clean paint, make oil cloths bright, and give the floors, tables and shelves a new appearance. It will take the grease off the dishes and off the pots and pans. You can scour the knives and forks with it, and make the tin things shine brightly. The wash-basin, the bath-tub, even the greasy kitchen sink will be as clean as a new pin if you use SAPOLIO. One cake will prove all we say. Be a clever housekeeper and try it.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. THERE IS BUT ONE SAPOLIO.
